

April 9, 2008

Dear Friend:

Please join me on April 26, 2008 for a financial literacy workshop. Many of my constituents have expressed a desire to learn more about strategies for building savings and how best to create and maintain a good credit profile.

GOOD CREDIT/GOOD SAVINGS/GREAT FUTURE!

You will receive presentations from trained credit counselors and information from local non-profit agencies that include materials to be used after the workshop in planning your future.

Organizational Participants: Triangle Family Services, NC Housing Coalition, NC Finance Housing Agency, NC Institute of Minority Economic Development, Self Help Credit Union, Center for Responsible Lending, Wake County Habitat for Humanity

Workshop presentations will include:

- ❖ The Credit Score Game: What's Your SCORE and How Can You Improve It
- ❖ Wallet Wise: Smart Personal Savings
- ❖ Own Your Home: Basic Steps to Successful Homeownership

The workshop will be held at the Alexander Family YMCA; 1603 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh. Registration begins at 8:30 am; the program is from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. A complimentary continental breakfast will be served and a boxed lunch will be offered at a reduced cost of $5.00. Please contact my Raleigh office at (919) 836-1313 or rsvpnc13@mail.house.gov. Feel free to distribute this invitation to others who might be interested in these workshops. Space is limited to 100 participants. Register early!

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,
